"I'm one of you now. I love you to bits. On my jumper is 'Thank you Luv' and 'I will never walk alone again'. Thank you for that. You are the best people in the world. Thank you."

LIFE OF PETER

Of all the disciples mentioned in the Gospels, Simon Peter's name appears most. He and his brother Andrew were commercial fishermen from a small town before a traveling miracle-worker named Jesus called them to leave everything they knew and follow him.

Peter's name means "rock," yet his personality was not steady for much of his younger years. He was passionate and rash, humble yet prideful, but also a natural leader. He followed Jesus with devotion, until, in a moment of fear, he denied even knowing the Savior he loved. But Jesus restored him, and Peter went down in history as one of the great leaders of the early church. Peter's life is a beautiful example of God's grace and redemption.

AD 27 CALLED BY JESUS

Peter is fishing on the Sea of Galilee when Jesus calls him and Andrew to be his disciples. They witness Jesus miraculously overfill their nets with fish. Matt. 4:18–20; Luke 5:1–11

AD 29 CONFESSION

Peter declares that Jesus is the Messiah. Matt. 16:13–20

AD 29 TRANSFIGURATION

Peter, James, and John witness Christ transfigured in glory. Matt. 17:1–13

Peter cuts off the ear of Malchus, the high priest's servant, in an attempt to stop him from arresting Jesus in the garden of Gethsemane. John 18:1–11

PENTECOST

Peter receives the Holy Spirit, preaches the gospel to the crowd, and emerges as a bold leader of the early church. Acts 2:1–41

MARTYRDOM

Peter is imprisoned, but an angel appears to him and strikes the chains from his wrists, freeing him. Acts 12:1–18

Peter is executed in Rome under Emperor Nero's persecution of Christians. (According to tradition, Peter was crucified upside-down, believing himself not worthy to die in the same manner as his Lord.)

Jesus predicts that Peter will deny him three times before the rooster crows, which Peter adamantly disputes. Matt. 26:31–35

PETER'S DENIAL

While Jesus is on trial, Peter, waiting outside, protests three times that he does not know Jesus. Then he weeps bitterly. Mark 14:66–72; Luke 22:54–62

The Sunday after Jesus's death and burial, Peter is one of the first disciples to see Christ's empty tomb. John 20:3–10

The resurrected Christ appears to Peter and the other disciples at the Sea of Galilee. Like his first encounter with Peter, Jesus performs a miraculous catch of fish. John 21:1–14

RESTORATION

Jesus tells Peter three times to "feed my sheep," a call to care for the followers of Christ. John 21:15–19

Peter confronts a sorcerer named Simon, heals a paralyzed man, and raises Tabitha from the dead. Acts 8:9–25; 9:32–43

When Peter and John are brought before the Sanhedrin, despite the threat of imprisonment, they refuse to stop preaching. Acts 4:1–22

Peter heals a lame man in the name of Jesus Christ. Acts 3:1–10

GOSPEL FOR THE GENTILES

Peter receives a vision from God, revealing that God has sanctified the gentiles. Peter brings the gospel to Cornelius, a gentile who receives the Holy Spirit. Acts 10:1–11:18

Peter writes two letters to Christians in Asia Minor facing persecution. 1 and 2 Peter

"Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will send you out to fish for people."

MATTHEW 4:19

2 PETER

For we were not making up clever stories when we told you about the powerful coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. We saw his majestic splendour with our own eyes when he received honour and glory from God the Father. The voice from the majestic glory of God said to him, “This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy.” We ourselves heard that voice from heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

2 PETER

When the watchman sees the enemy coming, he sounds the alarm to warn the people. Then if those who hear the alarm refuse to take action, it is their own fault if they die. They heard the alarm but ignored it, so the responsibility is theirs. If they had listened to the warning, they could have saved their lives. But if the watchman sees the enemy coming and doesn't sound the alarm to warn the people, he is responsible for their captivity. They will die in their sins, but I will hold the watchman responsible for their deaths.'
