Remember

Samuel took a single rock and set it upright between Mizpah and Shen. He named it “Ebenezer” (Rock of Help), saying, “This marks the place where God helped us.”

1 Samuel 7:12

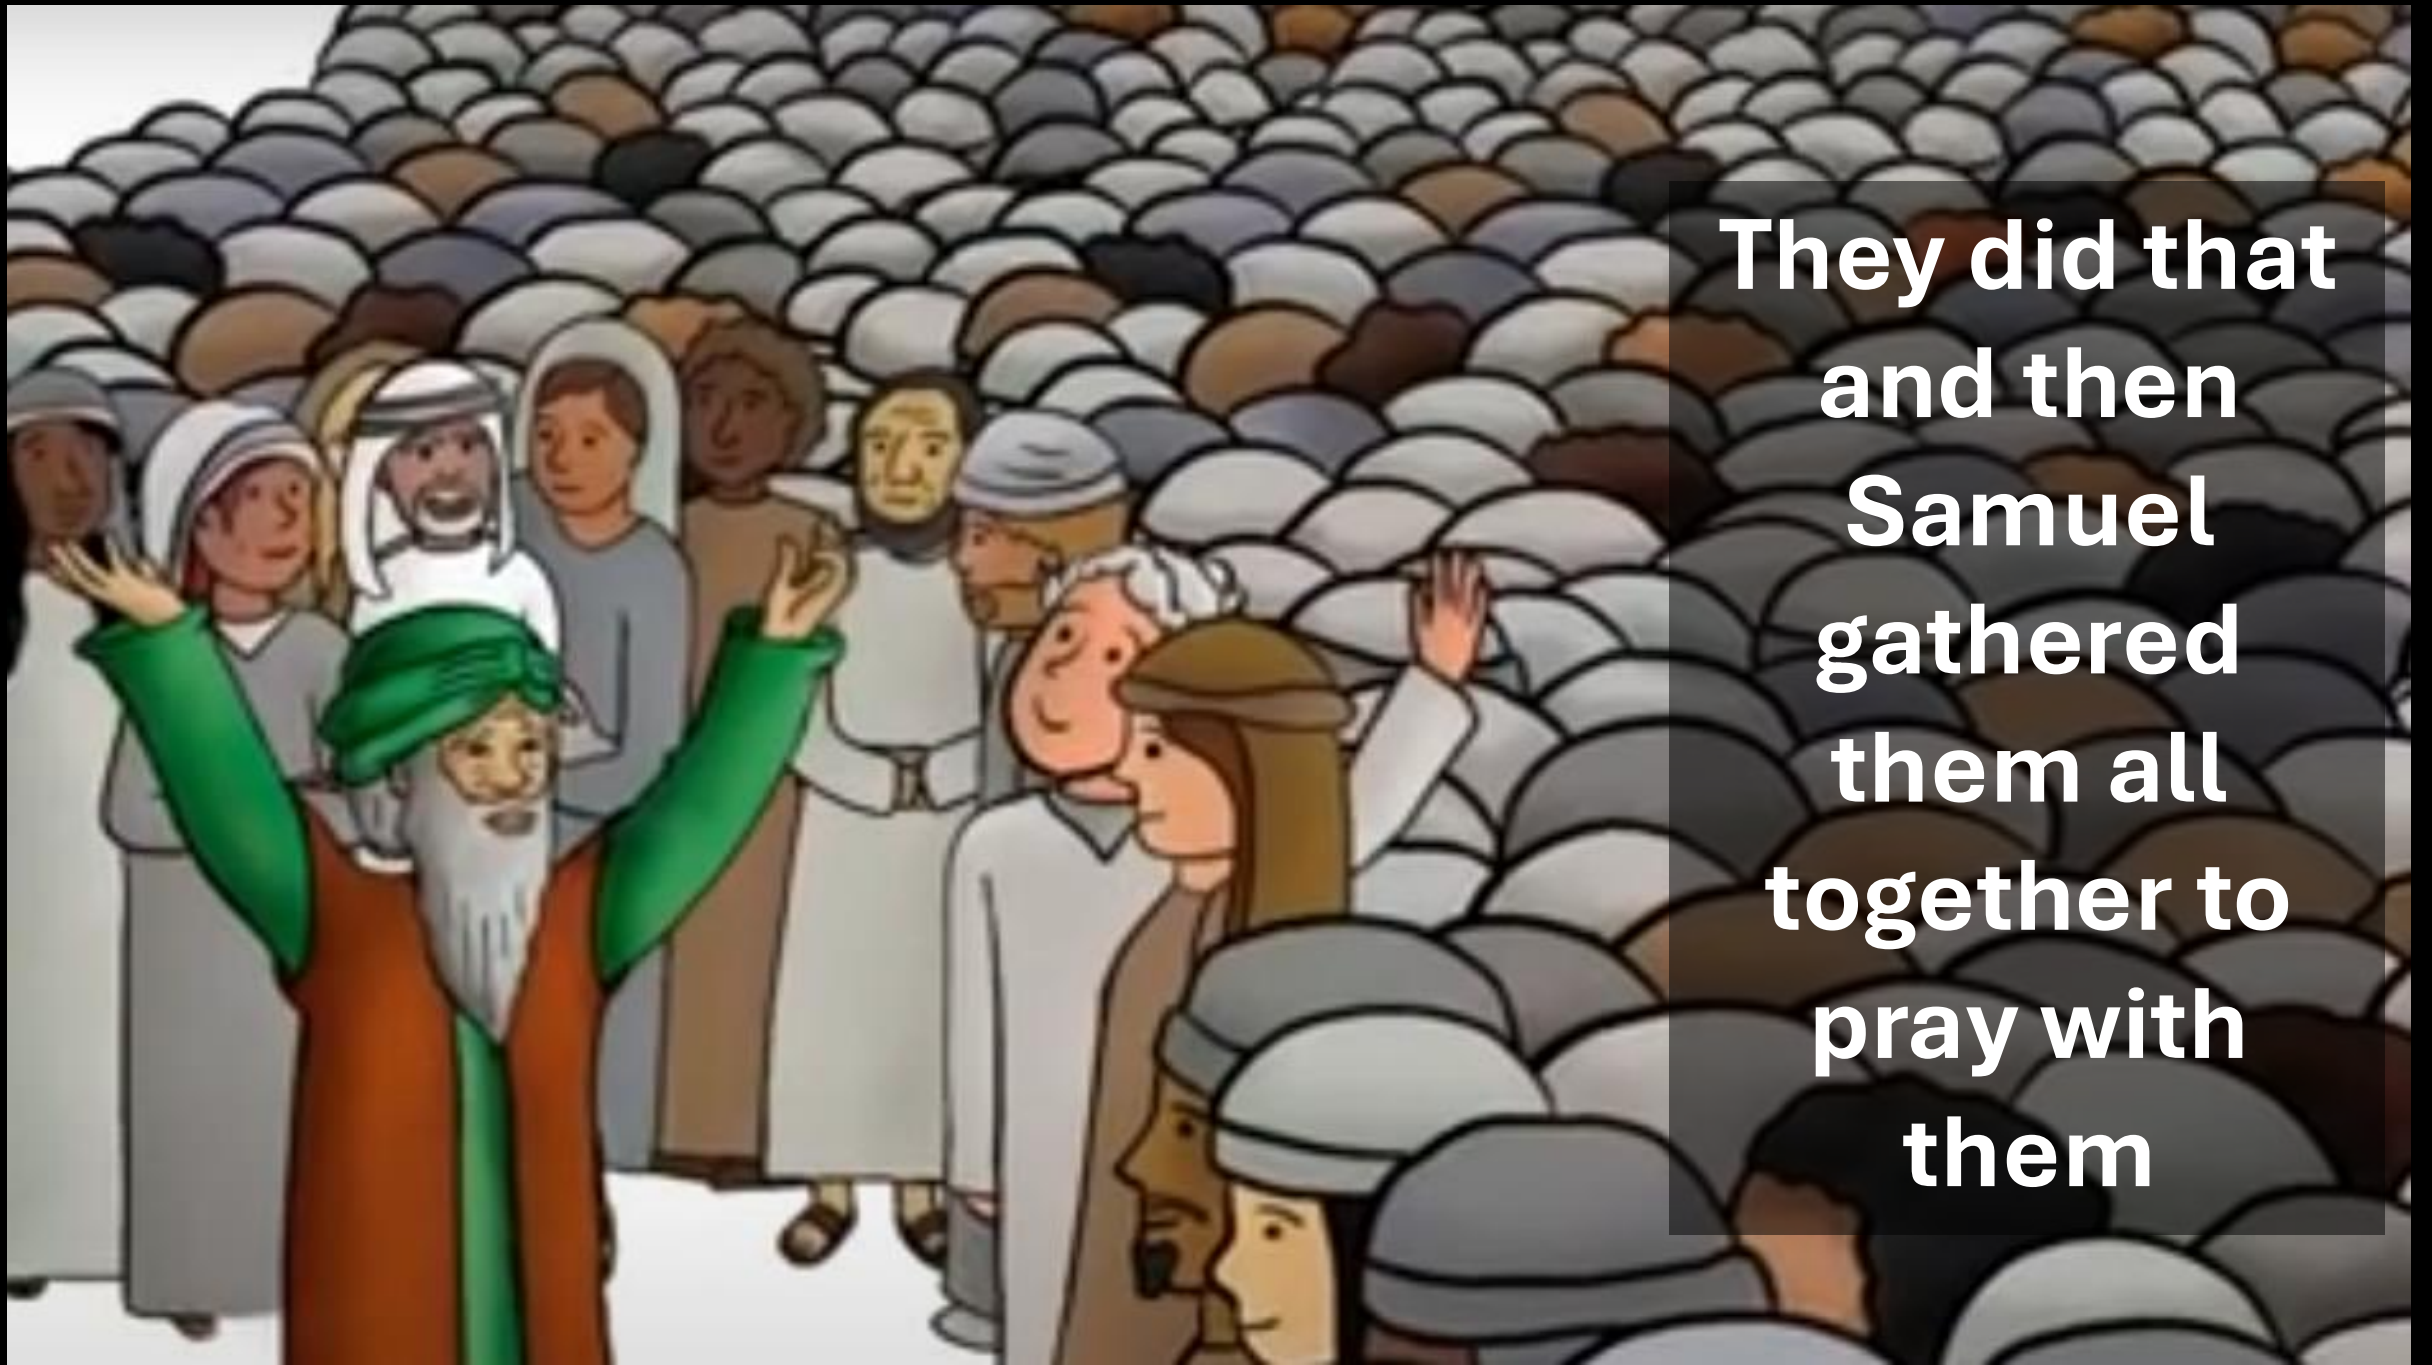

The Israelites were frequently being attacked

They had forgotten who God was and started worshipping idols instead of Him

They turned to the prophet Samuel and asked him
What they should do.
He told them to get rid of their idols

They did that and then
Samuel
gathered
them all together to pray with them

When their enemies saw them all together unarmed they decided to attack them.

Samuel prayed again to God and He spoke with a mighty voice of thunder, which confused the attacking army.
The Israelites were safe!

Samuel put a stone where the enemy
was defeated
so that they would always remember
what God
had done
