 Luke 22 highlights the irony & puzzle Roots in the OT - 1 Samuel 10 Samuel kisses Saul in an anointing ceremony for Kingship (King of Jews

 Samuel kisses Saul to inaugurate his job to save his people from their enemies (Matt 1:21)

THE BETRAYAL BY JUDAS - THE KISS

GOD REDEEMS KERRY LAST WEEK: RECLAIMS US, REFORMS US, RESTORES US REPURCHASE US

 Judas's kiss was meant as an act of betrayal not affirming royalty

•Still, what Judas meant for evil, God used for good.

•2 Cor 5:19 "God was reconciling" the world to himself in Christ...'

THE TWO MARYS WERE NOT MERE SPECTATORS ON THE FIRST EASTER DAY:

 World-changing truth: "He is not here; he has risen." Transformation - from mourners to worshippers. And then he sends them as the first witnesses and missionaries to his risen life.

NEW CREATION IS HERE Jesus 'resurrection is the beginning of God's restoration plan for everything he made - the making new of all creation.

In another place, Paul writes: "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!" (2 Cor 5:17).

CONCLUSION:

The good news of the resurrection is like soap - it only works when you apply it personally to yourself!

SALVATION CALL -COMING TO FAITH PRAYER

maybe listening, watching online, maybe a child or young person from a church family ready to say yes to God for vourself today

God, I believe that you made me and you love me. I want to trust my life into your hands. Jesus, I believe you died for me on that first Good Friday. I trust that my old life of selfishness and sin died on the cross with you. The old has gone, the new has come. I believe that you rose to new life on Easter Sunday. You say that I am raised with you, a new creation, and that my life and my eternity is in your hands.

Holy Spirit, as you raised Jesus from the dead, fill me now with that resurrection power.

May I live for you in all I do, sharing your love with others, bringing your kingdom in this world, until you come again.
